Holly Hill History Museum

Volume 8, Issue 1

January-March 2021

Recollections Worth Sharing!

A large part of 2020 found us experiencing a slower paced, more isolated life. However, it also offered us more opportunity for quiet times and reminiscing. Do you have treasured memories of growing up in Holly Hill?

Family functions?

School days?

Recreational activities?

Fun Spots?

Photos?

You can help us by sharing your personal history of the 'Good Ole Days' with the Museum! Write up your stories, bring in your pictures, share your history!

Come in, visit and share or email if you are out of town.

Holly Hill Christmas Parade Cancelled

Among the casualties of the pandemic was the Annual Holly Hill Christmas Parade which would have been the City's 61st. Here are highlights of previous parades.

In Memoriam

Our beloved Lifetime Member, Laura Davenport, passed away Dec. 7 at age 102. She was born in Indiana, but moved to Daytona in 1925, graduated high school in 1936 & married Bill Davenport in 1937. HH Mayor, Chris Via, honored her with a proclamation on her 100th birthday. Our condolences go out to her entire family, many of whom are Society members including her 4 daughters.
